

SIR ELTON JOHN ANNOUNCES AN EXTRA CAPE TOWN PERFORMANCE

94.5 Kfm and Big Concerts are excited to announce that Sir Elton John has added an extra Cape Town date to his South African Tour in March 2010. Ticket demand has been exceptional for his performance on Wednesday 24th March and as a consequence a second show has been added on Thursday March 25th 2010 at the Kirstenbosch Gardens. The legendary superstar will be joined by long-time collaborator and renowned percussionist, Ray Cooper. Be sure not to miss this incredible showman in a relaxed, picnic-style setting – “LIVE, Under African Skies”.

To date Sir Elton John has sold over 200 million records worldwide and had a multitude of hits including ‘Rocket Man’, ‘Goodbye Yellow Brick Road’ and ‘Don’t Let The Sun Go Down On Me’. He has also had success in film when he composed ‘Can You Feel The Love Tonight’ for Disney’s The Lion King, which won him both a Grammy and an Academy Award. Elton has gone onto compose various musical scores including Aida, Lestat and the award winning musical Billy Elliot, which has played to well over 2.5 million people in London, Sydney and in New York where it recently won 10 Tony awards including Best Musical.

Elton John’s musical career spans for over four decades. He was the biggest pop superstar of the early 70’s and forty years later remains one of the most entertaining, charismatic and energetic musicians and performers on the planet.

Recent reviews from the ‘Elton John featuring Ray Cooper’ European Tour had the following to say:

London – The Times – ‘He stood and received countless ovations; a hardcore and highly impressive display of the piano man’s craft’.

London – The Evening Standard – ‘His piano playing was powerful whilst his vocal reached master chef levels’.

London - The Daily Telegraph – ‘The power of Sir Elton John’s solo performance reminded his audience that he is a true original’.
